1	Can faculty check out books and use the same services in the library as students can?	11/21/2016 12:20 PM
2	Students have mentioned that they have a hard time getting copies of the classroom textbooks. Also, they have mentioned that they cannot always find articles on argument essay topics.	11/17/2016 2:39 PM
3	need more textbooks please	11/14/2016 3:33 PM
4	springer verlag downloads work great for my classes, and this term I am relying on them 'entirely' for one of my classes. More downloadable resources would be "more better"	11/14/2016 3:00 PM
5	Library personnel are consistently very helpful	11/14/2016 2:35 PM
6	JSTOR has been a fantastic addition. May I recommend orientations that have a game in them like "Who can find a book on topic X fastest?"	11/14/2016 1:19 PM
7	For chemistry, the main purpose of library use for students is analytical research. We have inquired about the analytical books that are no longer in the library. We have resorted to directing students to use the analytical library we have in the lab and also some online references.	11/14/2016 12:53 PM
8	For my class purposes, the resources are fine. There are just several I don't use	11/9/2016 3:28 PM
9	Our program utilizes Khan academy as a supplemental practice for our students. They may benefit from knowing about how they could use the library to study or use the computer to faster meet their personal goals	11/7/2016 10:29 AM
10	In the library orientation, I think the emphasis should be on the databases, rather than print because most students want to use the Internet for research.	11/7/2016 9:51 AM
11	Thank you ALL for the support shown to faculty. What is done in the library and LRC makes the life of an instructor so much less stressful than what it normally could be!! Thank you.	11/3/2016 1:00 PM
12	I think having a representative of the library make a presentation to the intermediate and advanced levels of ESL, GED, and ABE classes offered by Continuing Ed. would be beneficial.	11/3/2016 8:15 AM
13	yes, non credit students to have a library card to have access in the near future!	11/2/2016 11:41 AM
14	I agreed on 10 because I have used orientations in the past.	11/2/2016 8:31 AM
15	I would like to have access to the APA psychnet	11/2/2016 7:42 AM
16	None	11/2/2016 7:41 AM
17	It would be helpful in my ESL students on the non-credit side could check out books.	11/1/2016 10:12 PM
18	Using the classroom (one time per semester) with computers to teach students how to use Blackboard as well as introducing them to the LRC/tutoring center was especially helpful to students overall success	11/1/2016 8:13 PM
19	N/A	11/1/2016 7:34 PM
20	More newspapers and magazines	11/1/2016 7:12 PM
21	The library's weekend and Friday hours are insufficient to support learning and success. Hours need to be expanded.	11/1/2016 6:36 PM
22	I wish you had conference rooms or a "quiet talk" area where I could meet with a student.	11/1/2016 5:50 PM
23	Please don't shush students discussing school related work.	11/1/2016 5:10 PM
