  – Laws Relating to Transparency
  – Laws Relating to Fair Processes

Basic Values

Duty of Public Officials and Employees
• Engender public confidence in government decisions

How?
• Promote transparency in government actions
• Make government accessible to members of the public
• Apply rules equally and without bias
• Make decisions based on merit, not personal interests
• Provide same level of service to all
• Treat public with respect, dignity and courtesy
Part One: Laws Relating to Personal Financial Gain

Duty of Public Officials and Employees

- To be personally disinterested in contracts, financial matters or hearing processes in which you are officially responsible
- Avoid even the appearance or possibility of a conflict
Government Code §1090 Conflicts

General Rule
- A public officer or employee may not make contracts in which he or she is financially interested.

Penalties
- Civil & Criminal

Analysis

1. Is person an officer or employee?
2. Is there a contract?
3. Did the person “make” the contract?
4. Do they have a financial interest?
5. Is it a statutory “non-interest”?
6. Is it a statutory “remote interest”?
7. Does the “rule of necessity” apply?

Effect of 1090 Conflict

- Insufficient for interested party to abstain from voting
- Insufficient if contract is fair, just and equitable
  - Or even if more advantageous than another contract
- No “good faith” defense
- Contract is void
Summary of Operative Legal Principles

Government Code § 1090:
- No public officer may make a contract in which he/she is financially interested.
- Even if contract is fair, just, equitable or more advantageous
- No "good faith" defense
- Contract is void and unenforceable
- Insufficient for interested party to abstain
- Appearance of financial conflict prohibited

Common Law Prohibition:
- Public officials may not use their position for private benefit--both economic and non-economic
- Public officials must act with undivided loyalty
- Public officials must act with the appearance of fairness

Political Reform Act Conflicts

General Rule
- No public official may:
  - make/participate/use position to influence decision
  - if knows/should know of disqualifying conflict of interest

Effect of Conflict
- Member of board, council, or commission must:
  - Publicly declare the specific interest
  - Leave the room / refrain from participating
- Employees / Officials – No clear requirements
- No good faith defense!
- Penalties: primarily FPPC fines
Summary of Operative Legal Principles

Political Reform Act
- No public official may:
  - make/participate/use position to influence a decision
  - if knows/should know of disqualifying financial conflict of interest
- Board member must:
  - Publicly identify the financial interest after announcement of agenda item
  - Leave the room / refrain from participating

Common Law Prohibition:
- Public officials may not use their position for private benefit – both economic and non-economic
- Public officials must act with undivided loyalty
- Public officials must act with the appearance of fairness

A Good Deal for the District?
The District acquired property previously owned by Danny, a board member, to build a football stadium. Danny sold the land for $300,000 to a developer in a complex real estate transaction. The developer then conveyed the land to the District. Danny abstained from voting on the property acquisition.

A Good Deal for the District?
The deal was highly advantageous for the District. Danny took all actions after conferring with the District’s general counsel and disclosed his prior ownership in the land to the District. A member of the community is seeking Danny’s seat and claims that the Danny should be convicted of section 1090 violations and that he should disgorge the $300,000.
A Good Deal for the District?

Danny argues that he acted fairly and in good faith. He also claims he followed the advice of the District’s attorney.

Did Danny violated section 1090?

What will happen to the transaction?

Ethics in Practice: The RFP

ABC District is looking to hire a new chancellor. To that end, it has issued an RFP for search firms. Applicants that make it to the first screening will be interviewed by an ad hoc committee of 2 board members and the retiring superintendent. The committee will recommend one firm to the board for final approval.

Ethics in Practice: The RFP

1. Trustee Jones is on the ad hoc committee. Her live-in boyfriend is a headhunter for a firm that submits a proposal. Jones is sure she can remain objective and says nothing when her BF’s firm gets an interview. Problems?

2. What if the BF’s firm is recommended to the Board, may it contract with the firm? Should it?

3. At the meeting, board member Smith provides “full disclosure” that his wife is the firm’s vice president and that he his officially “bowing out” of the process. Does this cure the conflict? May the board delegate the contracting function to cure the conflict?

- Opportunity to be heard
- Fair and impartial hearing
- Requirements of due process are flexible depending upon the interests at stake

Nepotism

- The Fair Employment and Housing Act prohibits discrimination based on marital status, but allows employers to reasonably regulate, for reasons of "supervision, safety, security, or morale" spouses working in the same department, division or facility.
- Public official should not participate in decisions directly affecting family members

Ethics in Practice: It’s All About the “Smell Test”

1. Trustee Jones drops in to chat with the successful, brand new chancellor. He casually mentions his daughter is applying for a position in I.T. and that she is "top notch". Problems?

2. When his daughter does not get an interview, he is surprised and calls the Vice Chancellor of H.R. to discuss the selection criteria. Problems?

3. The Board President learns of this and has a one-on-one with Trustee Jones who insists he has done nothing improper because being a board member doesn’t mean he stops being a father. What are the President’s options?
