Almost, Maine:
Written by John Cariani
Directed by Shezwae Powell
On a cold, clear, moonless night in the middle of winter, all is not quite what it seems in the remote, mythical town of Almost, Maine. As the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, comedy, confusion and romance abound as Almost’s residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and often hilarious ways. Hearts are broken and the hearts mend—almost—in this delightfully whimsical midwinter night’s dream.

Fall Concert
This year’s Fall dance concert highlights the talents of MSJC dance artists, past and present. Featuring original choreographies by current faculty, accomplished alumni, and three select students, this concert celebrates the artistry, history, and successes of the MSJC Dance Department. Student dancers will perform these lively works as well as the work of a special guest artist. Join us for an eclectic evening of dance!

Spring Concert
Featuring the recent choreographies of students enrolled in Dance 212, MSJC Dances showcases the choreographic and performing talents of current dance students. This is the culmination of the year’s work in the Dance Department. Always a treat and revelation, a variety of dance genres will be performed including modern dance, ballet, hip-hop, jazz, contemporary, post-modern dance, and performance art.

General Admission: $10, Seniors and Students $8, Students with SGA $7, Children $5

Golden Eagles Big Band
Big Band Kaleidoscope
This performance explores the many musical colors the big band can produce. Bands all had their individual musical signature during the “big band era”, making them rise above the crowd and stand out. The concert compares the unique sounds from many of the bands and shows how the arrangers produced a memorable and distinctive style.
