Ethnic Studies is the systematic and comparative study of racial/ethnic groups, racism, and the impact of law and social inequality on contemporary society. The curriculum of the Department of Ethnic Studies at UCR focuses on the experiences of racial/ethnic groups that historically have been economically, educationally, politically, legally, and socially disadvantaged, and attempts to determine why these groups have not been fully integrated into the fabric of American society.

Students successfully completing the coursework will earn an ASSOCIATE DEGREE in LIBERAL ARTS in SOCIAL BEHAVIOR SCIENCES from MSJC and will be ready to transfer to UCR in the Ethnic Studies Major.
