San Jacinto Valley Women's Conference Annual Scholarship Program

The mission of the SJVWC Scholarship Program is to encourage and enable women to obtain and further their education to allow them to provide for themselves, their families and the Community. The awards are funded by the work of the San Jacinto Valley Women's Conference, an annual event held here in the San Jacinto Valley. The funds will be paid to the School or program management authority on behalf of each selected recipient, wither through the business office or the school's Financial Aid Office.
