II. ICC Club Reports & Information
   A. ICC President
   B. ICC Club Reps
      i. Challenge - Is holding elections Thursday April 25.
      ii. Asian and Pacific Islanders Club- gaming tournament went really well. The club had a large turnout, and raised a large amount of funds from the event.
      iii. Psychology Club- Will sell tickets for the Mother’s day fundraiser. The tickets will be one for $1 or six for $5. These tickets will go towards an opportunity drawing for a manicure/pedicure package.
      iv. Anthropology- will be changing the date of the carwash to May with the date and time to be announced. Pam Ford will be speaking on Zoo Archeology on the 29th of May in room 1211 from 3 p.m.-4 p.m. The club will be talking about nominations at the Wednesday meeting, and the elections will start next Monday and Wednesday.
      v. The Talon- New deadline for anyone to add to the paper is May 6, and the issue will be out before graduation. Any clubs that wish to add to club profiles, event information, calendar events, etc. can email the talon at msjctalon@gmail.com
      vi. SWANS- New elections will be held from 5 p.m.-7 p.m. in room 805, and it will be a potluck event. The club donated $100 dollars to the One Fund Boston to help victims of the Boston marathon. The club will give away Disneyland tickets through an opportunity drawing. The club will be giving away $25 dollars to nursing students in need. The students must pull up the application form through their Blackboard or pick one up at the nursing office.
      vii. Heart of Art- the club will continue promoting a student art show in the gallery, and students interested in participating should pick up an application from the gallery. The deadline is the first week in May. The face painting at the BBQs went well and raised money for the club.
      viii. San Jacinto S.T.E.M.- will be holding a Panda Express fundraiser on April 26. Purchases made at this location with a flyer will have 20% of the proceeds go to the club. The fundraiser will be from 1 p.m.-5 p.m. ix. Phi Theta Kappa- Saturday April 27 starting at 9 a.m. and going all day the club will be participating in an academic decathlon in room 600 on the MVC. Three colleges will be coming to participate with some $100 dollar scholarships being given out. April 28 will be the clubs induction ceremony on the SJC.
      x. Amnesty International- will be holding a pie the professor’s event with a large and growing list of professors including Reeves, Blake, and many more. This is a joint effort with Rotaract, and the donations will go to build fresh water well in countries in need. The pies will be 3 for $5 or one pie for $3. The club is also holding a membership drive.
      xi. Communications Club- the Toastmaster’s event was entertaining and went very well.
Active Minds- The club will be holding a health fair in the first week of May. The club will be holding meeting in the SGA rooms.

C. ICC Advisor Reports
D. Nathan Brais- wants to thank all the clubs for participating this semester. BBQs have been going really well due to all of the club participation. The Heart of Art had a great Earth Day theme booth. The E-waste recycle event went really well, and there were many large donations. May 7 and 9 are the last BBQs of the semester. They will be held during college hour 12 p.m.-2 p.m. All clubs are encouraged to develop a carnival like game as this will be the theme of the BBQ, and club should show up at 11:30 to setup. There will be a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winner for clubs with the best booth theme. Get the word out with posters, flyers, etc. because the SGA is trying to raise BBQ turnouts. May 2 Dr. Shultz will be meeting with the SGA and all clubs to get ideas on how to improve college hour and BBQ turnouts. Anyone with an idea is encouraged to bring them to the meeting, and those who cannot make it to the meeting can email nbrais@msjc.edu with ideas. The meeting will be on the San Jacinto campus in room 200 from 12 p.m.- 2 p.m. The club volunteer hours form has been sent out to advisors, and this form should be filled out in time to be turned in at the May 13 ICC meeting. The clubs should also have their 6 photos with captions ready to turn in at this meeting. These will be used to highlight clubs at the event on May 22nd from 6 p.m.- 8 p.m. at the Menifee campus in room 805. The event will have a slide show, and some table for club artifacts. This will also be a great time to highlight an students who stood out or received scholarships.
