II. ICC Club Reports & Information

A. ICC President

i. Corrine- the region IX meeting will be held on San Jacinto on December 13, for who would like to attend. The homecoming game and the bonfire went really well. Thank you to all of those who attended. The Relay for Life name was voted on as “The Eagles,” and there will be more information coming around of how the clubs can participate in the Relay. We are looking for a club to co-host the BBQs. Nathan had his baby boy. The deadline for clubs to submit new events will be the 4th of November. There will be several MSJC drives taking place. Club are not to lose sight of the focus of the drives, which is the college and helping the community. Several clubs have been having some turmoil over the drives, and they are losing focus of the purpose of these events. These arguments will not be tolerated, and a mediation will be set up if it seems necessary.

B. ICC Club Reps

i. Active Minds- Dianne Wehbe was successful, and she will be headed to Menifee in the Spring.

ii. Anthropology- the event at the Western Science Center on October 19th went well.

iii. Asian and Pacific Islanders Club- the club will be holding a basketball tournament on the Menifee campus on November 8, from 11:30 a.m.-5 p.m. The entry fee will be $5 per person with teams of three. There will be tables set up for all the clubs who wish to participate. The winner will get a prize.

iv. Black Student Union- the club will be changing the Rubio’s fundraiser date. The rehearsals for the open mic will be taking place tomorrow.

v. CARE Club- the club went to the Valley Restart and fed the homeless with the Key Club of Hemet High. The club will be holding a holiday event for kids coming up soon. There will also be some volunteering done at the Assembly of God church to feed the needy possibly on Thanksgiving Day.

vi. Communications Club- will be helping in the drives.

vii. FAVE- participated in the Wine & Jazz Fest.

viii. Heart of Art- participated in the Wine & Jazz Fest. They had easels set up, and everything went really well.

ix. Masqueraders- the movie event will be held on November, 8 and the 6th of December in the SJC theater.

x. Phi Theta Kappa- the academic decathlon will be on November 15, and study guides will be given out a week beforehand. Sign up at academicdecathlon.eventbrite.com Each member will need to put a first and last name, team name, and phone number. There will be scholarships given away and metals. Founder’s Day is Tuesday, November 19, the club will be handing out gifts at the BBQs. The club will be working with Rancho Springs sexual awareness program, and wearing jeans in April to raise awareness.

xi. Psychology- Mark Cohler went very well, and he is willing to come next semester as well. This Saturday the club will be participating in the Namiwalks at Diamond Valley Lake. The club hopes to raise $1000. There will also be a Victor support services workshop during college hour on November 21. It will be to help those combating mental health and more information is to come. The club is also considering volunteering at a homeless shelter.

xii. Puente- the Dia de los Muertos alter will be done on Halloween during college hour. The club will be selling hot chocolate, doing face painting, and playing music. The club’s Zumba party will be November 2, from 10-12 with the tickets costing 1 for $10 or 2 for $15. The sessions are one hour long.

xiii. Random Acts of Movement- upward Bound participated in the halftime show. The dance concert is coming up in December. The club would like to put on a dance show at one of the BBQs xiv. San Jacinto S.T.E.M.- The Panda Express fundraiser has been moved to November 6, and people will need to bring a flyer for the funds to go to the club.

xv. The Talon- the open house was a huge success. The club is looking for volunteers to write articles to submit to the paper. The email address for those interested in msjctalon@gmail.com
