C. ICC Advisor Reports
i. Nathan Brais- the BBQs had a better turnout than last time. The Menifee Campus had a new location, which seemed to be a success. A special thanks to those who wore purple and had cancer related information. The club rush event did well at the Menifee Campus. Any clubs that want to reserve tables during the week can notify Nathan and Sandi a week in advance to have the tables reserved and setup. The next BBQs will be March 18 and 20. The theme will be SGA. All students with an SGA sticker will get free BBQ, and the color theme will be the school colors- black and red. May 12th is the deadline for submissions to the time capsule. Clubs are encouraged to submit items, and the items should be related to the 50th anniversary and MSJC. A committee will review all items and accept those that meet the guidelines. Items such as group photos, small photo albums, pins, etc. items must be small as there is limited space. All of the information regarding this is in the SGA office. There are four “How to Plan a Successful Event” workshops on Monday and Wednesday from 12:30-1:30 for San Jacinto Campus. Tuesday and Thursday will be the San Jacinto Campus events during the same time frame in room 1202. March 10 is the deadline for all club charters and membership forms. No clubs will be able to activate after this date. This date is also the deadline to submit purchase requests for tangible items. Please email Nathan for exact details as to the requirements before attempting a purchase.

ii. SGA Support Specialist Reports –if a club wants to order tangible items it must be done by March 20 as this is the date the annual accounts are closed to be audited and reviewed.
