Inserting a Quote: The Basic Quote Sandwich

Intro
- State the source
- State argument you will prove
- Similar to your claim

Evidence
- Insert quote or paraphrase
- Cite properly
- No surprise

Analysis
- Connect the claim to evidence
- Make connections and draw conclusions
- Similar to your warrent

Dr. Muhtaseb (2016) asserts that American media portrays Arab and Muslim women positively when they "looked and acted like Western Women." In her analysis, as long as Arab and Muslim women fit Western ideals, they will be treated as darlings and seen as favorable.
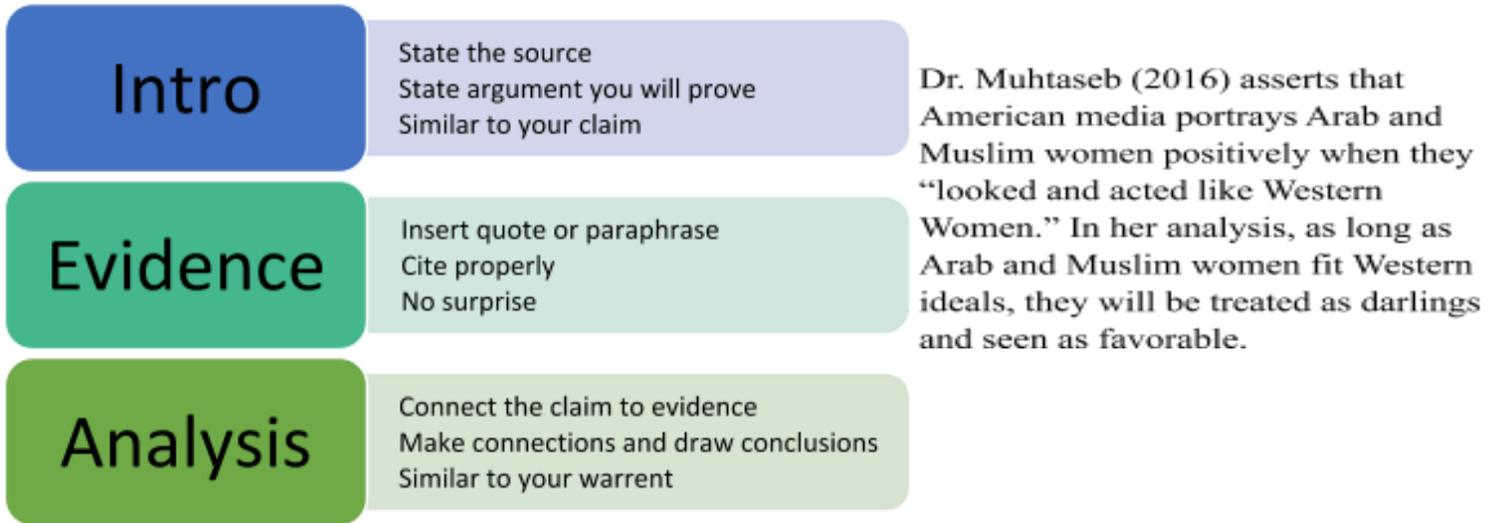

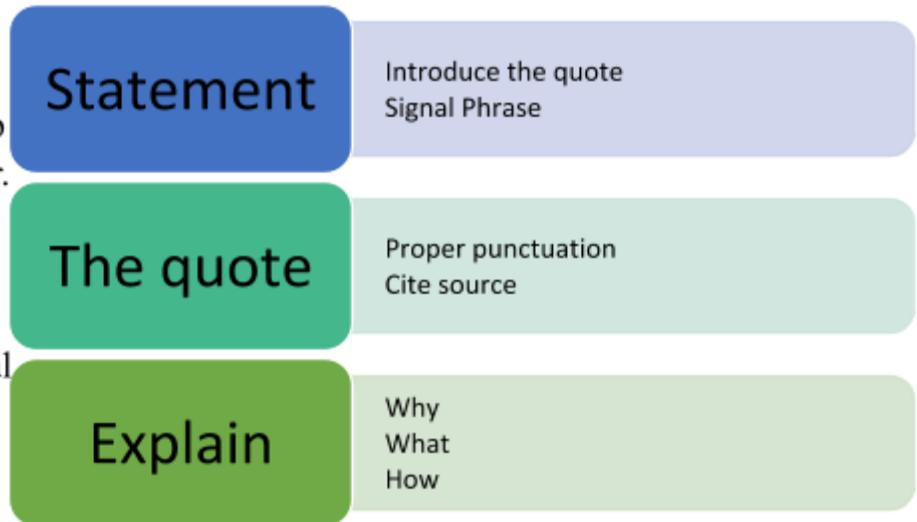

In an effort to understand the relationship between waste disposal on tribal land, Dr. Clarke (2010) explains that "the relationship is multi-influential and interactive." In essence, it is impossible to ignore that the tribe influences disposal while the disposal also influences the tribe

Statement
- Introduce the quote
- Signal Phrase

The quote
- Proper punctuation
- Cite source

Explain
- Why
- What
- How

Intro sentence
- Sets up the following sentences
- Gives an idea of what is to come

Signal phrase
- Opens the door to the quote
- Explains who is speaking or why

Quote
- Insert quotation marks

Follow-up
- Why does the quote matter
- How does this support your essay

While community college is the only option for many students, critics argue that those who enter community college will not be as successful as those who enter a university. Kevin Doughtery (1992) points out, however, that this comparison is imbalanced because "students who enter a community college..are much less likely…to want a baccalaureate degree." Therefore, the comparison is like comparing apples to oranges because university student and community college students are looking for different things.

Important Notes!

Quotes enhance

        Do not quote for the sake of quoting

Quotes are a support systems

        Should not retell the story

Ways to shorten quotes

        Ellipses

        Square bracket

                Add or change words

                        Wrong tense

                        Missing words

Things to consider

        Does the quote blend with my sentence?

        Does my sentence still make sense?

        Is it too complicated for reader to understand?

        Did I use correct grammar?

Words to use to introduce your quote

Argues	Writes	Points out	Concludes
Comments	Notes	Maintains	Suggests
Explains	Reveals	Discusses	Expresses
Insists	Observes	Counter	Asserts
Mentions	Declares	Confirms	Expresses
Remarks	Relates	Reports	Acknowledges
States	Claims	Demonstrates	Says
Disputes	Illustrates	Adds	Points out
Exclaims	Predicts	Proposes	Estimates